FROM TERESE'S DESK

HELLO to all! October was a tough month for the flu! I'm glad to see all those affected are now getting well. Many of the residents are leaving us for the winter to enjoy the great 'Southern Sun'! Please take care and have a safe trip.

I would like to thank Mary Sandlin & Rita Steiner for the many hours they volunteered getting the decorating done for Halloween/Fall. Mary's daughter-in-law purchased several new items for the Club Room and kindly donated them for our future use. Mary, be sure to 'THANK' her from everyone at Country Club Manor.

We are still looking for volunteers to help. If you enjoy the seasonal decors, a little bit of your time would surely help keep CCM looking beautiful year round. If you have your own personal items you would like to display in the common areas, feel free to put them out. Just remember, you are responsible to take them down also.

Another 'THANK YOU!' A bookshelf located in the Club Room with many new games was donated by Mary Sandlin. She would like everyone at CCM to enjoy their use, especially on game night (Wednesdays). Management would ask you, please do not remove the games from the Club Room.

REMINDERS:

- Please Do not throw your empty laundry detergent containers in the laundry room trash cans. Please either take them down to the recycle bins in the garage or dispose of them in the trash chute.
- Please do not remove any of the decorations without prior consent from the Management.

I hope everyone has a wonderful Thanksgiving! Until next month...

Terese

A MESSAGE FROM MARY

HI Everyone: Happy Thanksgiving to all of you and your families. By now you are all aware that the heat is on, so please close your storm windows to help conserve energy. If you are too hot, please turn your heat down instead of opening windows.

I hear the Halloween party went very well and everyone had a great time with lots of treats and a few tricks also. Thanks go to Kevin and Kathy for all the hard work putting it together. Thanks also to Mary and Rita for all the decorating, the buildings look real nice. Remember, for Christmas more hands will make the work go faster. Don't forget the Christmas party on Tuesday, December 14th and I look forward to seeing all of you. You must sign up to attend so be sure to watch for the signup sheets on November 29th. We must have a final count by Thursday DEC. 9th so be sure to sign up right away. With Thanksgiving coming, I would like to remind everyone to be careful with putting too much garbage down the disposal and to run lots of water when using it. If you will be making 5 lbs of potatoes, please throw the peelings in the trash not down the disposal. They were not designed for that much garbage at any one time. And remember NO celery or anything that is stringy. If in doubt, throw it in the trash. I would hate to have sinks clogged when you have company coming for dinner. Have a great Holiday and God Bless to you and your families!

God Bless,

Mary

THE FUNNY BONE

Bob came home drunk one night, slid into bed beside his sleeping wife, and fell into a deep slumber.

He awoke before the Pearly Gates where St. Peter said, "You died in your sleep, Bob." Bob was stunned. "I'm dead? No, I can't be! I've got too much to live for. Please send me back!"

St. Peter said, "I'm sorry, but there's only one way you can go back, and that is as a chicken."

Bob was devastated, but begged St. Peter to at least send him to a farm near his home. The next thing he knew, he was covered with feathers, clucking and pecking the ground.

A rooster strolled past. "So, you're the new hen, huh? How's your first day here?"

"Not bad," replied Bob, "but I have this strange feeling inside like I'm gonna explode!"

"You're ovulating," explained the rooster. "Don't tell me you've never laid an egg before?"

"Never," said Bob.

"Well, just relax and let it happen," said the rooster. "It's no big deal."

He did, and a few uncomfortable seconds later, out popped an egg! He was overcome with emotion as he experienced motherhood for the very first time. He soon laid another egg and his joy was overwhelming.

As he was about to lay his third egg, he felt a smack on the back of his head, and heard his wife say...."BOB, wake up! You sh*t the bed!"

Getting OLD just ain't what they said it would be!
